

MOTHER! CLEAN

CHILD'S BOWELS WITH CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP

Even a sick child loves the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup." If the little tongue is coated, or if your child is listless, cross, feverish, full of cold, or has colic, give a teaspoonful to cleanse the liver and bowels. In a few hours you can see for yourself how thoroughly it works all the constipation poison, sour bile and waste out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers keep "California Fig Syrup" handy. They know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.—Advertisement.

LESSON FOR FEBRUARY 5

ELIJAH TAKEN UP INTO HEAVEN

LESSON TEXT.—II Kings, 2:1-15.
GOLDEN TEXT.—Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life.—Rev. 2:10.

REFERENCE MATERIAL.—Mark 9:2-8;
II Tim. 4:1-8.

PRIMARY TOPIC.—God Takes Elijah to Heaven.

JUNIOR TOPIC.—Elijah Taken Up Into Heaven.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC
—Jehovah's Champion Exalted.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC
—Divine Approval of Faithful Service.

I. God Reveals to Elijah His Approaching Rapture (v. 1).

It was made known to Elijah that he was to go to heaven by a whirlwind. There is a striking correspondence between his life and his home-going. Much of his life was characterized with the rush of the storm, so God chose to take him home to himself in the whirlwind. As a reward for his faithfulness, God lifted the prophet over death into heaven. Elijah did not choose the time of his home-going, but was ready.

II. Elijah's Closing Ministry (vv. 2-8).

Knowing that the time of his home-going was near, he did not change his manner or method of life, but thoughtfully and calmly pursued his customary duties.

1. Visits the schools of the prophets (vv. 2-8). At the Lord's direction he went to give his farewell counsels to the young students whom he had been training and upon whom the future of the nation politically and religiously so largely depended. He made regular rounds in visitation and instruction. Schools were located at Gilgal, Bethel and Jericho. His educational work shows him to have been not merely an iconoclast, but a statesman of a high order.

2. Trains Elisha to be his successor (vv. 2-8). There was a real friendship between Elijah and Elisha, though the one was old and the other young. Elisha came into the life of Elijah in the field when Elijah called him from the plow (I Kings 19:19-21). Elisha clung to his master to the very last in spite of three urgent requests for him to remain behind. [These tests were somewhat like those of the Master with Peter (John 21:15-17). The great object was to get him ready to take up the work which Elijah was to lay down. The order of progress of the journey indicates, says Scofield, "the experience of every child of God who enters into a vital experience of God's best. That walk began at Gilgal. The typical significance of Gilgal cannot be mistaken by any reader of Joshua. Gilgal was the place where a redeemed people rolled away the reproach of Egypt (Josh. 5:1-11)."

"The next stage was Bethel—house of God—the place of vision, of spiritual insight, for Bethel was the place where Jehovah gave Jacob the great ladder vision (Gen. 28:1-19). He must go on from Bethel to Jordan. Jordan stands for the New Testament truth, crucified with Christ. There, on the resurrection side of Jordan, the gift of power awaited the prophet."

III. Elijah's Rapture (vv. 9-11).

1. Elisha's request of Elijah (v. 9). The walk of Elisha with Elijah from Gilgal to Jordan has prepared him for the final question of Elijah before his rapture. Elijah now knew that it was safe to allow Elisha to choose for himself. Elisha made a noble request—did not ask for riches, honor or position. He supremely desired the qualifications which would enable him to worthily succeed Elijah. Curiously enough, however, Elisha performed twice as many miracles as Elijah.

2. The condition of receiving was steadfastness and perseverance (v. 10). He must have faith in the invisible life in order to have power for public ministry.

3. Elijah's rapture (v. 11). It seems that he went to heaven in a chariot of fire enveloped by the whirlwind. Elijah underwent that change which all believers shall experience at the appearing of Christ (I Cor. 15:51, 52).

IV. The Spirit of Elijah Upon
Elisha (vv. 12-15).

1. Elisha's cry (v. 12). He cried after Elijah, "The chariot of Israel and the horsemen thereof!" This shows the value of a godly man to his country. It implies that Elijah was the true national defense. Godliness and character are more important than armies and navies.

2. Elisha uses the power (vv. 13, 14). He had faith to put the power to test.

3. The spirit of Elijah on Elisha (v. 15). This was confirmed by the sons of the prophets.

DIDN'T SEE END OF INCIDENT

Gap Johnson Had More Important Thing to Attend to Than Witnessing a Hanging.

"While I was in Tumlinville yesterday," relates Gap Johnson of Rumpus Ridge, Ark., "a mob came 'rarin' around a corper hauling along a gent with a rope around his neck, and flung the end of it over a limb within forty feet of me."

"Did they hang him?" interestedly asked an acquaintance.

"Doggd if I know! You see, just then a feller bantered me for a hoss swap and drug me off to look at his nag, and I didn't learn how the anecdote came out."

"What had the gent done?"
"Well, I heered somebody say that he'd either been selling bone dry licker to the mob or else he'd refused to do so; I forgot to ask which."—Kansas City Star.

Santa Claus Best Advertiser.

Christmas trees undoubtedly represent a destruction of timber of great value. They also represent a stimulation to business which every merchant depends upon in his annual calculations. It pays to advertise, and Santa Claus, though a myth, is the greatest advertiser on earth.

Doubtful.

North—Mrs. Jones said that I reminded her of her husband.
West—Is that a compliment?

There is no cure for overwork but to quit.

Then She Remembered.

Meeting a friend of mine, the wife of a bank treasurer, we stood talking. Along came a mutual acquaintance, the widow of a bank cashier.

"There goes Mrs. Blake!" exclaimed my friend. "I wonder how she likes the work in a broker's office?"

"Oh, she likes it fine, but she's had a hard time making a living," I replied. "But that's the way of it. Being a banker's wife doesn't always mean you have money, but you've got to pretend you have anyway!"

"That's right," said my friend, and then I remembered what her husband is.—Chicago Tribune.

Domestic Science.

Selby—Won't you dine with me?

Grimes—Thank you, I've just dined! I have been home and had my regular meal of apples, apricots and asparagus.

Selby—Isn't that a rather odd combination?

Grimes—Well, you see, my wife went to a domestic science school and had to leave after the first week—before she had reached the second letter of the alphabet!

Proceeding With Caution.

Angellina—I'm afraid I'm not a very good cook, but I'll try ever so hard after we're married.

Edwin—Better try now, before we're married. Try it on your folks and let me know how it comes out.

An Early Beginning.

Mother—This is your baby brother.
Johnny—I think you had better scrap him, ma; he looks like a fighter.

GOOD JOKE ON DANISH KING

Monarch Jumped Too Quickly to Conclusion That Eskimo Was Actuated by Loyalty.

An amusing story of the king of Denmark's recent visit to Greenland was recently told by M. Aagaard of the Danish legation, to members of the Danish club in London.

As the royal yacht was approaching Greenland a dark speck became visible on the open sea. It proved to be a solitary Eskimo in his little cayak (native canoe). The Eskimo came on board and his loyalty in having braved the perils of the sea in such a frail craft assured him the warmest of welcomes. The king presented him with a cigar and, what the Eskimos most highly prize, a rifle.

On landing, the king described the incident to the Danish commissioner in Greenland and asked him who the man was.

The commissioner, in accents of horror, replied: "The man's an escaped convict. He broke prison yesterday, stole a canoe and put to sea. We thought he had been drowned."

Five-Pound Box, at That.

In the good old days we could make a girl's heart flutter by handing her a lozenge with a love message stamped upon it; but nothing less than dollar-a-pound candy makes any impression upon the cardiac organ of the modern girl.—Boston Transcript.

One third of your life is allotted to sleep. Do you get your share?

The most important period in the process of applying nutrition to the repair of the body is while you are asleep. For the most favorable transformation of digested food into nerve and cell tissue, so doctors tell us, sleep is absolutely essential.

Is it any wonder that those who suffer from lack of proper sleep are weak, pale and lacking in energy or ambition?

One of the causes of insomnia is nerve-irritation from tea and coffee drinking. Tea and coffee both contain caffeine, which has a tendency to cause undue stimulation. The irritating effect of caffeine often results in insomnia, depression, and a weakened nervous system.

You can easily overcome these troubles by drinking Postum instead of tea or coffee. Postum is a delicious, satisfying cereal beverage, and it is absolutely free from caffeine, or any other harmful substance.

Ask your grocer for Postum. Drink this delicious, refreshing beverage for ten days. Then see if you do not feel better and more clear headed, and if you do not sleep better at night—as so many other people have proved for themselves.

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tin) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes.
